

CURRICULUM VITAE

Issues and Agenda for Yellow Sea Cooperation on the SDGs 14

Dong-Hyon, Lee

Professor, Pyeongtaek University

Professional Experiences

- 2010 - Present: Professor of International Logistics Dept, Pyeongtaek University
- 2010 - Present: Director, International Logistics & Marine Research Center
- 2010 - Present: Director, KMI-PTU Yellow Sea Marine Logistics Research Center
- 2010 - Present: Head of Project Group to Nurture Marine Logistics Experts for Yellow Sea
- 2010 - Present: Head of LINC+ Project Group, Pyeongtaek University, Head of Industry-Academy Cooperation Promotion Team, Director of the Office of Admission, Manager of Future Talent Development Department, Manager of PR Department, Professor of Logistics Department at Pyeongtaek University Graduate School, Professor of Interdisciplinary Major of Global Logistics Knowledge Experts for Yellow Sea
- 1991 - 2010: Journalist & Reporter of Business Dept, Busan Daily (Marine and Fisheries), Reporter of Politics Dept (National Assembly Correspondent), Senior Reporter of Business Dept (Marine & Fisheries), Head of Political Dept (Presidential House Correspondent), Head of Business Dept (Covering Ministry of Land & Maritime Affairs)
- 1990 - 1991: Dongyang Nylon, Hyosung Group

Educational Background

- 1990: BA in Social Science, Yonsei University (Major: Journalism, Minor: Economics)
- 2002: University of Washington (Seattle, USA), School of Marine Affairs, MA in Marine Affairs
- 2002: University of Washington (Seattle, USA), School of Marine Affairs, Certificate in GTTL (Global Trade, Transportation and Logistics)
- 2009: PhD in Administration Studies, Seoul National University Graduate School (Majoring in Policy Studies)