

CURRICULUM VITAE

The Sustainable Development Report 2020: China and Koreas in the World

Soogil Young

Chairman, SDSN Korea

Professional Experiences

Dr. Soogil Young is currently Chairman of the UN Sustainable Development Solutions Network (SDSN) South Korea. He founded the national network in 2013 and served as its Director till 2017. During 2010-2012, Dr. Young co-chaired South Korea's Presidential Committee on Green Growth with the prime minister. During 2012-2014, he served as chairman of the international advisory committee for the Green Growth Knowledge Platform (GGKP). Dr. Young is a senior economist of South Korea with a distinguished career since the early 1980s, advising the Korean government on the country's development and international challenges based at the Korea Development Institute (KDI) as a Senior Fellow (1981-1993), and subsequently, as president of the Korea Transport Institute (KOTI), the Korea Institute for International Economic Policy (KIEP) and the National Strategy Institute (NSI) each. Also served as the Republic of Korea's Ambassador to the OECD (1998-2000). A graduate of Seoul National University with a BSc in Chemical Engineering and of the Johns Hopkins University with a Ph.D. in economics.